PART II -- FEATURE ARTICLES

All Steamboat Bill (PowerShips) feature articles are shown under the section headings listed in the following table. Articles encompassing more than one geographical area or subject are indexed under all pertinent subject headings, with further cross-references provided so that articles dealing with a particular company can be readily located. For example, an article entitled "The Hoboken Ferry" will be found in the section headed Ferries and Ferryboats under the title "Hoboken Ferry, The", and under "Hoboken Ferry Company (Hoboken Land & Improvement Company)." These entries will also be found under the New York and Hudson River section.

Numbers following entries indicate issue number, followed by the page on which the article appears.

PART IV – ILLUSTRATIONS OF VESSELS

Part IV lists only vessels pictured or illustrated in Steamboat Bill (PowerShips), including interior views, artists' impressions, deck plans and other drawings. Wherever Necessary for identification, official numbers are used for United States and Canadian vessels. Canadian official numbers are followed by a "C", (e.g., 152649-C). One or more of the following may be given to further identify the vessel: vessel type, year of construction, the body of water the vessel operated or operates on, or the country of registry.

(*Note: Beginning with issue #193, illustrations of vessels do not have official numbers listed due to time constraints. They have been otherwise identified as accurately as possible.)
